La Argentina judía: Representations of Argentine-Jewish Identity

Argentina is home to the largest Jewish population in Latin America and one of the largest in the world. In his lecture “La Argentina judía/Jewish Argentina”, Dr. Darrell B. Lockhart will discuss the contemporary history of Jews in Argentina beginning at the turn of the last century. The presentation focuses on the contribution of Jews to the national culture through literature, film, and art.

Thursday, March 6th, 2-3.30 pm, Olson Hall 53A

This event is generously sponsored by the Department of Spanish and Portuguese, the Hemispheric Institute on the Americas (HIA), Jewish Studies and the GSA of the Spanish and Portuguese Department.
